1. "Announcement Meetings" were being held four times a week in the Yongch'on-rye area in July. These meetings were the occasion for the announcement of war news, for North Korean government claims on the number of United Nations prisoners captured and planes destroyed, and for exhortations to increase production. Anti-espionage themes were emphasized, and the citizens were warned that those who participated in such illegal activities would be given the death penalty.
2. In July the North Korean central broadcasting station, formerly in Pyongyang, was operating from shelters in P'yongyang-san, a mountain at Unsan, North Korea. The Sinaju radio station was operating from a mountain between Kimkwang-dong (42 22) and Unsan-dong (42 22) near Uiju (124-32, 10-12) (XE 3051).
